

High School & Middle School Students Interested In Exploring Engineering

Free Event

ENGINEERING EXPO

Sunday, November 15th, 2009

1pm – 3:30pm

Coppell High School
185 West Parkway
Coppell Texas 75019

Two Speakers will highlight the Expo:

1. An ExxonMobil senior executive
2. Mark Penny, Project Executive, Manhattan Construction Company. Mark was involved in the construction of the new Dallas Cowboys stadium in Arlington.

Visit with universities including Alabama, Arkansas, Bradley, Cal Berkeley, Colorado School of Mines, Columbia, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical, Georgia Tech, Illinois, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, LSU, MIT, Michigan, Missouri Univ. of Science & Tech, Naval Academy, Nebraska, North Texas, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Penn State, Purdue, Rice, Richland, Stanford, SMU, Texas A&M, TCU, Texas Tech, UC San Diego, University of Dallas, USC, UT–Arlington, UT–Austin, UT–Dallas, Vanderbilt.

Talk to companies and engineering firms about careers in Engineering from: AT&T, Construction Consulting Laboratory, DRS Technologies, Dunaway Associates, ExxonMobil, Fluor, Frito Lay, General Motors, IBM, Manhattan Construction, Microtune, NASA, NCH Corporation, PBSJ Engineering, Peterbilt, Providence Engineering, Sikorsky Aircraft, Southwest Airlines, ST Microelectronics, Teradata, Texas Workforce Commission-Aerospace, The Sham Group, Yokogawa Corporation of America. Also attending are the following organizations: AIChE, Coppell Gifted Association, Dallas Society of Women Engineers, Tau Beta Pi Honorary Engineering Society, Texas Society of Professional Engineers.

Explore Education & Careers in Engineering

FOR A MAP & MORE INFORMATION GO TO

<http://www.chsengineeringboosters.com/expo.htm>